to write to you to beg
you to try to attain that after her death that her pension should be trans-fered to me on account of my being an orphan
and dependance, and also considering the short time she enjoyed the pension.

I mean to write to Sr Charles Dilke and also to Mr Lowell who was American Ambassador in Madrid.

We have written also to Mr Trudgate participating the sorrowful
news, and inquiring
what documents are required for transfering the funds that are in the Court of Chancery

to Madrid. Our Angtha has not left any last will.

You can imagine in the state of desolation in which we all are.

I beg you will excuse
my troubling you so much

Yours very sincerely

Rosa Llanos Keats

We should like to leave the subscription of the Pall Mall Budget.
